Reserve Grade: Woongarrah (2) V Southern Ettalong (4)

It was a game of doubles in this Woongarrah V Southern Ettalong clash, with 3 goal scorers scoring the 6 goals of the game. Woongarrah opened the scoring on the day, as Danielle Helou pounced on a poor clearance from the Southern Ettalong goalkeeper. This didn't dampen SEU's spirit though, as they quickly bounced back with Alana Currie scoring her first of the game, followed by a goal to Madelyn Ryan. The game went into halftime 2-1 to Southern Ettalong. The second half saw Southern Ettalong extend their lead through some great lead up work down the right-hand side of the field, with a low cross finished by Alana Currie for her second goal of the game. Madelyn Ryan soon followed Currie's footsteps, scoring her second goal of the day from a through ball, 4-1 to Southern Ettalong. Woongarra rounded out the scoring for the day with a well-constructed goal to Danielle Helou, her second of the day also. The goal keepers for both sides were stand out in this game, pulling off a number of saves to keep their teams in the game.

First Grade: Woongarra (0) V Southern Ettalong (1)

The first half saw a number of chances for both teams, however, both were unable to find the back of the net. Going into the second half nil all, both Woongarra and Southern Ettalong were vying for a goal. Woongarra's defence held out Southern Ettalong well, with their goalkeeper making a number of critical saves. The majority of play was in the home team's end of the field, with a number of quick counter attacks from the Woongarra attack. It wasn't until the dying minutes of the game that Southern Ettalong managed to break down Woongarra's defence from a corner that was headed into the top right corner by Madelyn Ryan. The final score ending 1-0 to Southern Ettalong.

Reserve Grade: East Gosford (4) V Terrigal (1)

Despite a few late changes to the East Gosford Reserve Grade squad due to illness, they came out firing and ready to play the competition leaders. The Rams dominated the bulk of possession in the second half, as 14-year-old Sienna Smith scored on her debut, finishing a cross from Kirsty Wright. Naomi Abbott then scored her second of the day, taking the final score to 4-1 for East Gosford.
